A Note From Our Leadership

A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

What is Texas Hillel? It depends on who you ask. Students might say that Texas Hillel is where they learn, where they met their roommates, or how they got to spend an entire summer in Israel. Alumni talk about Hillel as the place where they learned to be leaders, gaining skills that continue to serve them today. Parents share that Texas Hillel is a resource for information about what's happening on campus, and the way to send matzo ball soup and extra care to a student with a cold. Whether you ask a member of our staff or Board of Directors, our campus partners, or any other member of the ever-expanding Texas Hillel community, you'll hear a different answer of what Texas Hillel is, and what it means to that person.

Perhaps an even more powerful question is "why?" At Hillel, we strive to empower every student to make an enduring relationship to Jewish life, learning, and Israel. It's through our shared mission, vision, and values that we create a community with our students. Each person connects with Judaism and to Jewish community differently, and we are constantly working to grow and expand our work to meet our students' needs. The purpose of Texas Hillel is not just about great on-campus experiences, but lifelong impact.

No matter your "what" or "why", Texas Hillel is an investment in the future of the Jewish people that we make together. Thank you for supporting our students.

Rabbi Stephanie Max

Texas Hillel

A MESSAGE FROM OUR BOARD PRESIDENT

Amid unprecedented times, the next generation of Jewish torchbearers and impactful community members emerges strong at Texas Hillel. This is no accident. Talented professional staff and dedicated student leaders work continuously to expand and elevate joyful Jewish life, as other voices on campuses nationwide cast a shadow. Your generosity and support powers this holy work- the urgency of which has never been more compelling. On behalf of the Texas Hillel Foundation Board of Directors, please accept our deep gratitude. It is an honor and privilege to build the Jewish world together.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR STUDENT BOARD PRESIDENT

It's no secret that this past year has been challenging for everyone. It's been impossible to escape the anti-Israel flyers, social media posts, and protests. All the while, Israel still mourns the days of October 7th and faces shouts from the world to stop its endeavors to prevent the next one. Reflecting on the past year, being a Jewish college student hasn't been easy.

I remember opening my phone on October 7th and feeling lost. I also remember sitting in a cafe months later in Spain, seeing my fellow classmates having to deal with the fear of protests that hopefully wouldn't replicate the disasters that occurred at other Universities in the Northeast. However, I also remember sitting hand in hand with my fellow Jewish students the day I arrived back from the Texas/OU football game that frightful weekend in 2023. I remember driving with my friends downtown to meet up with the other students from Hillel and proudly marching downtown with my Israeli flag flowing from my back.

After October 7th, I understood more than ever before the importance of having safe Jewish spaces. When I was walking out of one of my classes, a student stopped me and asked about Hillel. He had never been to Hillel but told me he was looking for a Jewish community, something that the student did not find during his four years of college. One thing that remains consistent within Jewish history is that the Jewish people are resilient and that each tragedy that comes our way only makes us stronger.

From Chanukah to Purim, some of our favorite Jewish holidays to celebrate are the ones when our enemies tried to destroy us. 2,000 years of Jewish history and the same qualities ring true. Texas Hillel has been my home since day one. It connected me to a family unlike any other community at UT and has given me so many experiences that I will never forget. As college speeds by, the one time of the week that grounds me and slows me down is Shabbat. The one time of the week when I can just forget everything and sit down and have dinner with my Jewish family here at UT.

Alex Suster
Student Cabinet Chair

A HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Texas Hillel is my home away from home. The love and support from the staff and student leaders, and the friendships I've made here feel like family. Being American-Israeli, Hillel has been extremely supportive during this difficult year, and I am forever grateful to know they are always there for me. It's where I am able to freely connect with my Jewish roots and find a sense of belonging, reminding me that I always have people by my side during the good and the hard times.

-Lia, '26

Thanks to Texas Hillel, I was able to find my home away from home, along with a real sense of identity and community. Through Shabbat dinners, I was able to meet my best friends. Through learning fellowships, events, and other programs, I was able to dive deeper into my own self-perception and Jewish identity and learn lessons I can carry with me throughout my life. Through the Hillel staff, I was able to meet incredible and inspiring Jewish role models. Through the Birthright Israel trip, I was able to make memories that will last a lifetime.

-Andrew, '24

To me, Texas Hillel is not only a safe place, but a home way from home with a warm community and a group of people who encourage me to be the best version of myself. From weekly shabbats that connect me to my peers, to learning fellowships that connect me to Jewish topics and texts, to planning pro-Israel events that help showcase my Jewish pride during a time where it may be hard, Texas Hillel has undoubtedly shaped my college experience for the better.

MORTON TOPFER, z" data-bbox="314 140 540 158"/>

A true visionary and inspired leader. Mort Topfer developed an appreciation for Hillel's role in Jewish life when he was a student at Brooklyn College in New York. In later years, he became a successful entrepreneur and eventually a corporate executive at Dell Computers. During this time, in 1998, he learned from Austin-based Jewish leadership that Texas Hillel was embarking on a major renaissance and reimagining initiative, including rebuilding its outdated and undersized student home on the University of Texas campus. As an outgrowth of his own experience and inspiration for the importance of Hillel in providing "a home away from home" through services and programs for Jewish students, he and his wife made a leadership commitment to donate $500,000 as an initial gift to the then developing Capital campaign, to be followed two years later by a supplemental $1,000,000 challenge gift with the goal of eventually reaching the required six million dollar campaign total. Always a valued advisor, Mort's leadership in inspiring many additional individual and corporate donations, resulted in the successful completion of the fundraising goal in 2006 and the subsequent opening of the new facility, to be known as The TOPFER CENTER FOR JEWISH LIFE. Mort passed away in 2023 but his passion and determination leave a rich and meaningful legacy for Texas Hillel for all to know.

GLEN ROSENBAUM, z" data-bbox="54 416 290 435"/>

A graduate of the University of Texas Law School, Glen was passionate about the positive impact of Hillel's role in the lives of Jewish students on the UT campus. His involvement with Hillel was enormous throughout the Renaissance years, beginning in 1998. During the following 25 years, he served in numerous volunteer leadership capacities, including as a valued legal advisor whenever such was needed, as a generous philanthropic donor to the annual operating budget, and with a personal donation to the then-new building capital fund campaign, which he designed and spearheaded. Most notably, he served for many years as Chairman of the successful campaign initiative, followed by his subsequent leadership as chair of the Endowment and Legacy Board. Throughout these years of involvement, he served with ceaseless commitment, pride, wisdom, and advice as a lay leader, always available during a challenging and much-needed rebirth on behalf of Texas Hillel and the Jewish community on the UT Austin campus. Thankfully, he witnessed the outcome of his commitment in 2006 with the opening of the Topfer Center for Jewish Life. Finally, he continued his involvement as an advisor and donor, including with a generous legacy gift. Sadly, he died too soon in 2023. He will be remembered for his leadership and philanthropy throughout the years.

Make a lasting impact for Jewish students at UT Austin.

For more information on legacy or endowment giving, please email Texas Hillel Executive Director, Rabbi Stephanie Max, at smax@texashillel.org
